Comment	Absolutely 100% object to this obsured idea of even more dwellings in an over populated area with traffic problems and not enough schools and doctors. Absolutely disgusting greedy developers trying their luck on green belt land. The high elms estate further down lower road has been a nightmare for this village regarding development destroying roads and crime is up. To build another 10 homes without a new doctors and school is pure greed on behalf of developers and back hand merchants and Rochford council. Completely object.
