

Woodlands Section Consultation Response from Patrick McKenna

The ecological report provides sufficient information in relation to making an informal planning decision.

There are no ecological concerns or further surveys required.